BUSINESS MEN GET HEARING ON LIGHTS

Commissioners Reopen Matter Because of Protests.

As a result of the storm of protests against the regulation requiring lights on all horse-drawn vehicles in the District, the Commissioners yesterday reopened the matter and gave a hearing to a committee appointed at a mass meeting of business men recently.

They asked for an extension of time from December 15, so that more data in connection with horse-drawn vehicles might be obtained, especially in regard to accidents at night. The committee was composed of John M. Newbold, W. S. Hoge, Perry Johnson, T. W. Smith, E. S. Alvord, W. W. Griffith, W. H. Moses, Carl Burdick, and W. Hamilton Smith. J. D. Robinson presented a petition containing 2,000 names, embracing nearly every merchant and business man in the city.

The business men do not complain about the regulation requiring lights in regard to its application to rubber-tired vehicles. Such a provision is wise and should be advocated, they assert, but the compulsory lighting of the ordinary vehicle is considered unnecessary. Such an order, they say, would work a burden and hardship upon the whole community. In Mr. Robinson's petition he notes that no accident of a serious nature has occurred in the city through the fault of any horse-drawn vehicle.

John M. Newbold said the chief objection was not the cost of the lights, but the difficulty connected with the care of such lamps and the handling of oil about the stables.

Commissioner Johnston told the committee that the measure was prepared solely for the safety of the public.

NAMES FOR BATTLE SHIPS.

Two Big Vessels to Be Called New York and Texas.

Battle ships Nos. 34 and 35, authorized at the last session of Congress, will be named the Texas and New York, respectively. The latter will be built at the New York Navy Yard and the Texas by contract.

These vessels will be of about 27,000 tons displacement, and will carry a main battery of eight 14-inch guns. The two vessels now bearing these names will receive other titles.

The armored cruiser New York, now a flagship of Rear Admiral John Hubbard, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic Squadron, will henceforth be known as the Manhattan. The second-rate battle ship Texas, which is now obsolete and is at the Charleston Navy Yard, will be renamed the San Marcos.

HUSTON DENIES CHARGES.

Former U. S. Treasurer Speaks in Own Defense at Trial.

James N. Huston, former United States Treasurer, yesterday spoke in his own defense on an alleged charge of conspiracy in connection with Harvey M. Lewis and Everett Dufour to use the mails to defraud. The case has been in progress for three weeks before Justice Wright in Criminal Court No. 1.

Mr. Huston denied the allegations in the indictment, and said he had never seen Mr. Dufour before meeting him in court in connection with this case. He said he met Lewis in New York in 1906, and, believing his proposition to be legitimate, allowed his name to be used in connection with the formation of the National Trust Company.

Attorney Henry E. Davis, for the defendant, Lewis, advised the court that his client rested his case as it stood at present and would offer no further evidence.

SIXTY EMPLOYEES TO GO.

Immigration Commission Passes Out of Existence Monday.

When the Immigration Commission passes out of existence next Monday, about sixty employees will be dropped from the government pay roll. No provision for placing them elsewhere in the departments has been made, excepting ten who were loaned by the Census Bureau last year.

According to a paragraph in the urgent deficiency bill adopted at the last session of Congress, the work of the commission must be complete by the beginning of next week. The commission was established to make an inquiry into immigration conditions in the United States, and has cost altogether about $80,000.

Reports dealing with the alien criminal and the condition of the immigrants before reaching this country are to be issued by the commission.

EARLY MAY STOP HERE.

Alleged Leper Asks Permission of Health Department.

John R. Early, who was held in government quarantine and examined for leprosy a year ago, is in the twilight again. This time he wants to change his place of residence from Plattsmouth, N. Y., to Cleveland, Ohio, and through Attorney Egbert has written to the health department asking permission to stop over here without interference.

The health department in Cleveland has asked the advice of the department here concerning the stand it must take in regard to Early. A complete review of the case was sent to Dr. C. E. Ford, secretary of the Cleveland health department, and that department was left to draw its own conclusions.

Acting Health Officer H. F. Sawtelle was quoted yesterday as saying that as far as the Washington officials were concerned Early's presence was not desired in Washington.

DESERION LEADING OFFENSE.

Six Hundred Sailors and Marines Court-martialed in Year.

Among the other offenses were scandalous conduct, fraudulent enlistment, assault of sentinels, breaking arrest, disrespectful language, Dr. C. E. Ford, secretary of the Cleveland health department, and that department was left to draw its own conclusions.

Addresses urging the parents' association were made by the following teachers: Miss Louise A. Smith, principal of the Giddings School; Miss F. M. Costin, and Miss E. J. Jones.

At the conclusion of the meeting the organization was perfected, to be known as the Home and School Association of the Joshua R. Giddings School. The following officers were elected: President, G. ## SIMS GETS THREE YEARS.

Insurance Company Embezzler Is Going to Moundsville Soon.

Crying like a child as he left Criminal Court No. 2, John G. Sims yesterday began a three years' sentence for embezzlement. He was formerly agent for the Life Insurance Company of Virginia.

"My wife, my poor wife! Why should I be sent to prison?" he cried.

On reaching his cell at the District jail he threw himself face downward on his narrow cot, sobbing and moaning in his despair.

Efforts had been made to obtain a parole for him, and Sims was ignorant of the fact that they had failed when he appeared in court yesterday. He was certain clemency would be extended him. He will be sent to Moundsville to serve his term in the penitentiary there.

MOODY RESTING EASIER.

Illness of Former Associate Justice Takes Turn for Better.

The illness of former Associate Justice William H. Moody took a sudden turn for the worse a few days ago, and his friends for a day or two were much alarmed.

Mr. Moody was attacked with severe hemorrhages, which could not be controlled for several hours. The information of Mr. Moody's serious condition was carefully guarded by his friends until yesterday, when it became known around the Supreme Court. He is resting easier, it was said.
